Local tie to Abdul-Jabbar film

Local philanthropist and Penn alum

Allison Weiss Brady and former Sixer Chris Webber are among investors in NBA legend Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's "On the Shoulders of Giants" project.

Abdul-Jabbar's book was released earlier this month, and now Spike Lee is planning to produce a documentary based on it. Abdul-Jabbar had to postpone a recent book-signing set for the Penn bookstore. Weiss Brady, an overseer at the Graduate School of Education at Penn, hopes he can reschedule soon.
