

February 22 2007

UCLA will honor its 1967 NCAA championship team Saturday when the Bruins play host to Stanford at 3 p.m. Forty years ago the senior less team led by sophomore center Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) finished with a 30-0 record under coach John Wooden.

Wooden and Abdul-Jabbar will be at the UCLA Store in Ackerman Union from 1-2:30 p.m. signing Abdul-Jabbar's book, "On the Shoulders of Giants — My Journey Through the Harlem Renaissance." The other starters on that team — junior Michael Warren, sophomores Lucius Allen, Ken Heitz and Lynn Shackelford — are also expected at the game.